STOLEN TREASURY NOTES .- The Washington Correspondent of the Journal of Commerce states the following circumstances, which tend to implicate the Custom-House officials in the recent motory of Treasury Notes at New Orleans:

"The most remarkable part of this affair is, gefact which is stated by the officers of the Tresury here, viz: that the scheme must have ien a long time in contemplation and preparaon, with the connivance of some officers of the Vew.Orleans Custom-House. Until within a artain time, the Treasury Notes canceled at that Custom-House and sent to Washington were marked 'canceled' on their face in good, strong, mest black letters. On the back of the notes also was a receipt from the person paying in the 30168, also legibly and strongly written with good ink. But suddenly this practice was changed. and a thin, washy ink was used for the above purposes; and in the canceled notes since regived by the Custom-House-and which, Mr. Spencer says, bear slight marks, if any, of having en canceled—both of these endorsements are dearly and entirely obliterated. So the canceling has for some time, been done in such a manner is to render it very easy to take the ink out entirely.

AWFUL TRAGEDY .- A gentleman who arrived Cincinnati on Friday evening, from Georgeown, Ky., states that just beyond Crittenden. bout twenty-five miles from Covington, a woman ras found lying on the side of the turnpike, with er skull broken and her brains protruding. Beade her, on a log, holding a child about three wars old on his knee, sat her husband and murerer, who acknowledged having done the deed, and said that he had carried an infant to a neighbring house to be taken care of, and returned .from his answers it was impossible for the bysanders to tell who they were, from whence they came, or whether he was sone or insane. They were travelers, however.

SMUGGLING ON THE CANADA FRONTIER .- A seimre to a large amount has been made by the vigance of Colonel Brooks, the Collector of Depoit, consisting of dry goods of all descriptions, valued at several hundred dollars. The snuggled articles were brought over to that city from Canada and there packed in boxes, the more asily to escape observation and detection. It is sid that the individuals engaged in the transacion have been held to bail to stand trial at the next term of the U.S. Court for the district of

The sales at the board were very large, reaching in State Stocks alone to 150,000 par value. Prices were without material change. Ohio Sixes, of which $100,000 were sold, advanced \( \frac{1}{2} \) per cent; Illinois fell 1 per cent; Harlem improved \( \frac{1}{2} \). Long Island declined \( \frac{1}{2} \).

The Bill market closed rather heavily for the steamer with a fair supply. Sterling was 8], but at the close the last bills sold at 8½. Francs 5.30 a 5.27½. There had been a considerableamount of specie put up for shipment to Havre, but the decline in rates will probably arrest it.

Useurrent money, principally safety fund, is very plenty, and the brokers are fully employed in buying it at § per cent

Mr. Jandon does not go out in the Hibernia as reported, but has taken passage in the Great Western. The object of his visit has not directly transpired. The rumor connecting it with the negociation of the main line of Pennsylvania it with the negociation of the main line public works, is not without a show of probability. Bank of Vernou this State. It is dated April 18, 1843, S. D. Day, Cashier; N. Bishop, President, No. 933.

There appears to be something left in Georgia, as the foltion by the Whigs of Bibb County testifies : Resolved, That the Whig party of Georgia congratulate themselves upon the success of their struggle for several year back, to restore a sound specie paying currency in our state, and that they now feel pledged to vindicate the honor and faith of Georgia, by insisting upon the payment of all Relief issues of the Harrisburg Bank, altered from one's and two's to fives's, are in circulation. They may be easily detected by holding them to the light. The same may be said of the Erie and of the York Banks. Two's counterfeit of the Berks County Bank, are very plenty. Two's terfeit of the Exchange Bank of Pittsburg, are also very plenty, and are difficult of detection. PICTORIAL HISTORY OF

NAPOLEON.

The Life of Napoleon, now offered to the public, is translated from the French of M. Laurent de L'Ardeche, Member of the Institute of France, &c. The sale of this work in France alone has exceeded twenty thousand copies within two years. The American edition will be issued in four volumes, at the remarkably low price of 50 cents a volume, each comprising upward of 250 pages, and containining over nmes, at the remarkably low price of 50 ceuts a volume, each comprising upward of 250 perces, and containing over FIVE HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS.

Illustrating the most striking events in his career both public and private, executed by eminent artists from designs by the celebrated HORACE VERNET; in addition to which there will be given numerous whole-length Portraits of the most distinguished Generals of the French Empire.

"The work is superior to the long, verbose productions of Scott and Bourrienne—not in the style alone, but in truth—being written to please neither Charles X, nor the Eurlish aristocracy—but for the cause of freedom. It has advantages over every other memoir extant."

The possession of this work is particularly important and interesting to all who are engaged in reading the valuable works of ALISON and THIERS.

as it fully illustrates his views and sentiments in his own words of the important period of history from 1780 to 1915, when as Commander-in-Chief, First Consul and Emperor he was deciding the destinies of Europe.

FROM NAUVOO .- General Joseph Smith, (the prophet.) Mayor of the city of Nauvoo, has published a proclamation in the Nauvoo Wasp, addressed to the citizens of the holy city, stating that there exists, up and down the Mississippi, and round about the city of Nauvoo, a band of des. peradoes, bound by oaths of secrecy, under severe penalties, and that he understands some of the members, who have, through falsehood and deceit, been drawn into their snares, are, through fear of the execution of said penalties on their persons, prevented from divulging their secret plans and depredations ; the prophet mayor, therefore, grants and ensures protection against all personal violence to each and every citizen of the holy city who will freely and voluntarily come forward and truly make known the names of all such abominable characters. The invitation will doubtless be generally responded to by the pious St. Louis Repub.

No less than twelve negroes ran away from their owners in Howard District, Md. on Sunday morning of last week, and made their way toward Pennsylvania, or to other free States; but they were pursued by a party of four persons and overtaken. When the slaves discovered their pursuers, they fled for the woods, and the night being dark, but two of them were captured. The rest of them, however, soon after gave themselves up, and they are all safely lodged in jail.

A Big Law Suit .- The County Commissioners of Washington county, Md., entered into the requisite bond to secure the costs preparatory to carrying the case of Washington County vs. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company into the Supreme Court of the United States. Jayne's Expectorant .- The presiding Genius Jayne's Expectorant.—The presiding Genius of Conghs and Colds is especially busy at this season of the year, sowing the seeds of disease on the damp, chill, equinoctial winds, and preparing a goodly harvest for the scythe of death. Let all who are afflicted with coughs and colds, and do not wish to become sheaves in that awful harvest, apply the remedy now. With those who have a constitutional predisposition to consumption, immediate relief from the first symptoms of its approach is a matter of vital importance.—With all, however robust and vigorous, it is in a climate like this a matter of moment to subdue all indications of pulmonary disease at the outset. A short delay may be fatal. "Only a cold," said a friend of ours about three weeks ago, in reply to an inquiry about his health. Poor fellow'he now sleeps the sleep that knows no waking, a victim of Constantion. Had he used Jayne's Expectorant in the early stage of his complaint, he would now, in all probability, be living and in health.

Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge.—Some medicines warranted to "destroy worms in children," are very well calculated to destroy the children too. This is not the case with Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge. It does not contain a single ingredient which can harm the most delicate inflant, and yet it excels worms from the system with a facility and certainty perfectly astonishing. Nor is this its only sanative property: it is a line Stomichic, and in remittent and intermittent fevers has been administered with most gratifying results. Obstinate cases of Piles, have yielded to its influence, and its to inc qualities render it an excellent medicine in the convaluscent stages of all diseases. It is exceedingly pleasant to the taste.

SECOND CONCERT BY THE EOLIANS! AT SOCIETY LIBRARY ROOM!

ON WEDNESDAY EVENING, May 17. THE HUTCHINSON FAMILY respectively announce their second VOCAL ENTERTAINMENT, at the Society Library Room,
No. 348 Broadway, on Wednesdey Evening, May 17, 1813. The Programme for this evening is one of rare attraction, among which will be introduced the SNOW STORM, (founded on fact,) descriptive of the sufferings of a Mother while wandering with her child over the Green Mountains of Vermont in pursuit of her husband, who had already perished in the Storm. The Mother, too, becoming weary and faint, and cold, at last sunk down upon the Snow, and Alter carefully wrapping her infant child in her own cloak, and bandoring the protection of Heaven upon the babe, she yielded up her spirit. The bodies were discovered the next morning by a traveler, who, unfolding the ven upon the base, she yellowing her spirit. The books were discovered the next morning by a traveler, who, unfolding the robe that enclosed the little babe, found it still alive, and a smile playing upon its countenance. He immediately carried it to a dwelling and its life was preserved. This occurred in 1821. The child has now grown up to womanhood, and still lives in Vermont.

The VULTURE OF THE ALPS will also be sung this vering for the first time.—Music original. This is a most hriling descriptive Song, portraving the agonizing feelings of Farent at the loss of an infant child, snatched suddenly from is companious by the ravenous Vulture, while engaged in bildish plays in the field.

hiddish plays in the field. One cloudless Sabbath summer morn, the sun was risinchigh. Vhen from my children, in the lawn, I heard a fearful cry. When from my children, in the lawn, I heard a fearful cry,
As if some awful deed were done—a shriek of grief and pain,
A cry, I humbly trust in God. I ne'er may hear again."

The justly popular Song of the "Maniac" will also be repeated. Also, the Parody of "King Alcohol," "The Grave of Bonaparte," "The Alpine Hunters," "Mountain Bugle," Ke, Ke.

. Xe. The whole to conclude with the Family Song, containing a istory of the 13 Sons and Daughters of the Tribe of Jesse. TICKETS, FIFTY CENTS EACH, to be had of Saxton
